

Gloc Intranet Instructions

As of October 2008 Gloc now has an Intranet site, the address of which is as follows:

<http://sites.google.com/site/glocmtmembers/>

This replaces the previous Gloc Members website. The public website, www.glocmt.org.uk, remains in use.

- 1/ To access this site click on the link above
- 2/ If you already have a Google account enter your password for access to the site

Or

Follow the steps to create one. You should use the e-mail address that the Membership Secretary has on file for you.

Access

Members can access all parts of the website except for the Committee page and can post and make comments on the notice board.

Your access to the site is controlled by your e-mail address, so please ensure you keep the Membership Secretary (membership@glocmt.org.uk) up to date with any changes.

If you think your level of access is incorrect or you need help with access to the site the quickest way to resolve it is to e-mail the webmaster (webmaster@glocmt.org.uk) and someone will be in touch with you as soon as possible.

Similarly, if you have any ideas on how the site can be developed further please contact the webmaster who will review your request.

Alternatively you can speak with any of the Web Development Team - Nick King, Duncan Walduck or Rob Eveleigh - at rehearsals.

User Guidelines

The site is designed for information exchange only, i.e selling cars, advertising events, show updates. As such, users are subjected to the following User Guidelines:

"The Gloc Intranet is an information exchange portal for the general membership of Gloc Musical Theatre.

Any activity that is deemed as against the purpose of the site or as inappropriate in any way will be removed. The member concerned will be contacted as to the specific reasons for the removal of the post. The committee reserves the right to revoke access to any member abusing the site."

Happy Surfing!
